APPENDIX 1 – BISHTON COMMUNITY COUNCIL LOCAL RESOLUTION

1. The complaint would need to be sent to the Clerk to undertake a first sift to ensure that the complaint is at a suitable low level and should not be dealt with by way of a complaint to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales (the Ombudsman). If appropriate, the Clerk will firstly seek an early resolution of any such dispute by liaising informally with the individuals concerned prior to the following resolution process. It is vitally important that the 'accused' individual is given full details of the complaint against them so that in the interests of natural justice they are in a position to prepare their response to the accusation.

2. It is important to note that the involvement of the Chair/Vice Chair of the Council in the following process is not to adjudicate on the complaint, but to attempt to get the parties involved to come to an agreement as to how the issue(s) could be resolved on an amicable basis. The Clerk will act as a facilitator for the resolution process.

3 It is the intention that all of the process can be completed as quickly as possible to resolve the issue. However, exact timing will depend on the availability of individuals to attend the meetings.

4 Depending on who the complainant is and the person subject to the complaint, the following will apply:

4.1 If the complaint is between Councillors other than the Chair of the Council, the Clerk and the Chair will meet individually with the complainant and the Councillor subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

4.2 If the complaint is between Councillors, one of whom is the Chair of Council, but not the Vice Chair, the Clerk and the Vice Chair will meet with the complainant and Councillor subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

4.3 If the complaint has been made by an employee (not the Clerk) against a Councillor other than the Chair of Council, the Clerk and the Chair of Council will meet with the officer and the Member subject of the complaint to seek an agreed resolution.

4.4 If the complaint has been made by an employee (not the Clerk) against the Chair of Council, the Clerk and the Vice Chair of Council will meet with the employee and the Chair of Council to seek an agreed resolution.

4.5 If the complaint has been made by an employee (not the Clerk) against the Vice Chair of Council, the Clerk and the Chair of Council will meet with the employee and the Chair of Council to seek an agreed resolution.

4.6 If the complaint has been made by an employee (not the Clerk) against the Vice Chair of Council, the Clerk and the Chair of Council will meet with the employee and the Chair of Council to seek an agreed resolution.

4.7 If the complaint has been made by the Clerk or the Clerk is the subject of the complaint, then the details will be forwarded by way of a complaint to the Ombudsman.

5 If an agreement is reached by Councillors and/or employees during this process, then no further action is required. Examples of agreements might include issue of a letter of apology, a written undertaking or commitment not to breach the Code of Conduct in the future, a commitment to undertake training or an agreement that on the basis of the evidence that no further action should be taken, and the matter be closed. However, if agreement cannot be reached the aggrieved party would always have the opportunity of referring the matter to the Ombudsman.

6 Any meetings held with a view to discussing the issues of complaints and/or resolving matters will be minuted. This is to ensure that agreements are captured. This will also be useful if matters break down or escalate and need to be referred to the Ombudsman. It may also be useful as evidence in the event of further similar breaches of the conduct and future conduct.
